Nothing Fancy. Something simple.

A weekend of conversation, quiet, and recovery for people in 12 step recovery. Newcomers and "old timers" are most welcome!

These retreat programs are open to all without regard to religious affiliation. Indeed, all are welcome. We are a community seeking and practicing sobriety in all the affairs of our lives.

Fr. Tom Weston has been leading retreats for people in recovery from alcoholism and addiction, and their families and friends, full-time around the globe since 1984. He has taught history at Loyola High, then the Study of Theology, at the Jesuit School of Theology part of the Graduate Theological Union. Ordained a priest by Archbishop John R. Quinn of San Francisco in 1978. Was the director of the Jesuit Volunteer Corps, Southwest, 1981-84. Full time ministry with alcoholics and addicts, mostly leading retreats and workshops, since 1984.

Registration begins Friday at 5:00 pm followed by dinner at 6:00 pm and concludes Sunday 11:00 am. Fee: $250 Single / $235 Double. *Scholarships available
