“Creating the Hope We Seek-- The Sacredness in Everyday Life”

May the God of Hope fill you with all joy and peace as you place your trust in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.” Romans 15:13

In Romans 15:13, Saint Paul reminds us to trust in the God of Hope. While hope is sometimes seen as mere wishful thinking, Christian hope transcends this notion. It is an active pursuit of a future that may not yet be visible to us. By entrusting ourselves into God's hands, we move closer to experiencing full communion with Him and with one another. In today's world, cultivating true hope can be challenging. We invite you to join us this retreat season as we move beyond mere wishful thinking and actively strive toward this hope in God and with one another.

“For not only do we endure through our sufferings, knowing that they produce perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.” Romans 5:3-5
