The Institute for the Study of the Passion will observe the Holy Year by offering eleven reflections on the Biblical Spirituality of Pope Francis. The Holy Year occurs every twenty-five years. Hope is the motivation for the Holy Year as we cope with the hopelessness and sorrow so many feel and experience. Hope is the hub of the virtues, motivating us to be what we long for as we seek to lift up the poor, set free the oppressed, and strive to live in peace with everyone. The writings and teachings of Pope Francis will guide us.
