Our Lenten Day of Reflection will focus on the Sunday readings from St. Mark's for the Season of Lent ("B" Cycle). The Temptation and the Transfiguration accounts prepare us for Mark's proclamation of the Passion and crucifixion of Jesus. We are challenged to consider the crucifixion in terms other than suffering, humiliation, and obedience. The Lenten readings, each in their own way, open up aspects of the Passion and Crucifixion that may not be obvious. This Jesus crucifies himself to us long before Pilate nails him to a tree. The brevity of Mark can be disarming, but like seed in good soil, the insights yield an enormous harvest.

Presenters: Fr. Tom Bonacci, C.P. assisted by Fr. Joe Moons, C.P. and Fr. Phillip Donlan, C.P.
